Geneua, April 14. N. S.

Complaint being made to the Senate, that the Merchant Ships belonging to the Subjects of this State, are frequently moleſted and plundered by the ſmall French Privateers who cruiſe on this Coaſt, two Genoueſe Galleys were ſent out the 14th Inſtant for the ſecurity of our Navigation. The Spaniſh Miniſter here has hired ſeveral Veſſels to tranſport to Catalonia a Regiment of Foot, which is coming hither from Milan.

Leghorne, April 15. The Peace Sloop which departed lately out of this Port for Alexandria, is put into Port Longone. Three of the Great Dukes Galleys are ordered to Civita-Vecchia, to carry Cardinal Fourbin and his Family from thence to Marſeilles; and two other of the Dukes Galleys are to attend the Count de Harath, the Emperor's Miniſter, who is expected in few days from Venice, and will go from hence to Barcelona. The Mazareen, and Upton Galley for London, and the Good-Succeſs for Alexandria, will be ready to ſail in few days. The French Ships commanded by the Marquis de Pulas, continue to cruiſe on theſe Coaſts.

Venice, April 19. We have Advice, that the Men of War and Veſſels laden with Proviſions, which ſailed hence ſome time ago under the command of Signior Duodo, are arrived at Napoli di Romania; and that the Captain-General intends to go to Sea with the Venetian Fleet the beginning of the next month. The Count de Harach, the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Spain, went hence yeſterday for Leghorne.

Madrid, April 17. The King of Spain continues his Reſolution of going to Aranjuez the 24th of this month. The Letters from Catalonia ſay, they make preparations with great diligence for the next Campagne. They write from Cadiz of the 8th, that the Oxford and Soldadoes Men of War were then under Sail with above 50 Merchant Ships for England. We have Advice from the Maderas, that Vice-Admiral Nevill was there on the 8th of February with the Ships under his command; and that about 13 days before paſt by that Iſland a Squadron of Ships ſtanding S. W. which 'tis believed were French, under command of Monſieur Pointy, bound to the Weſt-Indies.

Vienna, April 20. The Emperor has not yet declared the General Officers to command his Forces in Hungary this Summer, but 'tis believed he will do it before his departure for Luxemburg, whither the Court will remove the next week. The Biſhop of Paſſaw is now here, and ſo ſoon as he has received his Diſpatches relating to his Embaſſy to Poland, will begin his journey thither. The Imperal Troops in Hungary are orderd to be at the Rendevous near Buda by the 20th of the next Month; and 'tis ſaid that a deſign is formed to attack in the mean time the Fortreſs of Bihats, on the Frontiers of Croatia, which is to be executed by the Troops quartred in thoſe parts. A Party of 500 Turkes, belonging to that Garriſon, defeated lately 150 Croatians, the greateſt part of whom were killed, with the Commanding Officer.

Franckfort, April 28. The Forces of the Allies aſſemble near Hailbron; Moſt of the Troops of Suabia and Franconia, with 2 or 3 of the Imperial Regiments which ſerved in Piedmont, are already arrived there; and the reſt are on their march. The French have their General Rendezvous near Landaw; and at preſent a ſmall Body of their Troops is poſted near Spier. The Deputies who are to aſſiſt at the general Meeting of the Six Circles begin to arrive here; We are told, that the Elector of Saxony will ſend a good Body of his Troops to the Rhine; The Elector of Hanouer will give likewiſe a very conſiderable Aſſiſtance, and the Circles are very diligent to ſupply their ſeveral Quota's, ſo that Prince Lewis will have a great Army under his command this Summer.

Hamburgh, April 30. The Letters from Stockholme of the 24th Inſtant ſay, the Regents had entred upon the Adminiſtration of the Government; and that great preparations were making for the Funeral of the late King. The laſt Advices from Poland tell us, that the Confederated Forces continued together in Upper-Poland; and that the ſeveral Parties were labouring to advance their Intereſts againſt the time of the Election.

Paris, April 29. Monſieur de Vauban, the Ingenier, went hence yeſterday for Flanders; and Mareſchal de Villeroy will be going thither towards the end of this week; and the Mareſchal de Choiſeul, and Mareſchal Catinat, about the ſame time to Germany. The Gens d'Arms who Winter'd in Dauphine, are marched to Germany, and are to be the 15th of May at Strasbourg. The Duke de Vendoſme, who is to Command in Catalonia, has ſent away his Equipage, and he himſelf will follow in 7 or 8 days; The French Forces on that ſide are ordered to be at their Rendezvous on the 15th of May. The Mareſchal d'Eſtree is to command in Britany, Mareſchal de Tourville in the Country of Aunis, and Mareſchal Joyenſe in Normandy. The Squadron of 5 Men of War commanded by the Marquis de Neſmond, and the Ships fitted out under the Command of Monſieur Magnau, were by the laſt Accounts from Breſt and Rochefort, ready to ſail, and ſtayed only for a fair Wind; The Sieur de Genes, who has been in the Weſt-Indies, is returned to Port-Louis, after a long and fruitleſs Voyage; He has brought home the 5 Ships that went out with him, but not one Prize; and what was ſaid of his having taken two Ships in the Gulph of Mexico, proves a groundleſs Report.

Bruſſels, May 1. The Troops under the Command of the Elector of Bavaria continue in the Camp at Deynſe; but his Electoral Highneſs being indiſpoſed, is come to Ghent. The Troops commanded by Prince Vaudemont lie at Waterlo, and in two other Camps between this Place and Louvain. The French are encamped near Thuin, between Charleroy and Maubeuge. The Count d'Athlone was very ill the laſt week, but is at preſent thought to be out of danger. The Mareſchal de Bouffliers was ſome days at Tourney; 'Tis ſaid he is to Viſit the French Frontier Places in
